United States Half Dollars.

The following collection was formed during the past ten years by Mr. Schmauk and the common dates are selections from thousands that have passed through his hands in that time. Many very desirable pieces will be found among them. Those catalogued as barely touched show only the most trifling marks and would be called uncirculated by most cataloguers. Where more than one piece of a date occurs, they are almost without exception varieties.

- 2.85 1 1794 Very fair, nearly good, date very good. Two very small letters lightly scratched in right field. Haseltine's No. 2, and said by him to be excessively rare.
- 15 2 1795 Fine and strong. Three trifling light scratches before face.
- 72 3 1795 Very good, nearly fine.
- 72 4 1795 Very good.
- 72 5 1795 Very good.
- 85 6 1795 Very good, 2 pieces.
- 1.05 7 1795 Good. The owner who has compared this piece with the varieties in Haseltine's Type Table says it is not given by him.
- 77 8 1795 Good.
- 72 9 1795 Good, 2 pieces.
- 8.15 10 1797 The head good, shows eye and some of the hair lines. Stars before face all distinct but somewhat worn, those behind head good. Liberty distinct and date very good and strong. Rev., worn but the eagle, wreath and greater part of legend are fair and distinct. Very rare. Cost $40, ten years ago.
- 2.85 11 1801 Good and rare.
- 4.0 12 1802 Very good, rare.
- 91 13 1803 Large and small 3's, very good, nearly fine, scarce, 2 pieces.
